OBITUARY

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DR. PARIKSHIT THAKUR

(Reminiscing is a great way for the bereaved ones to make grief bearable.)

Died on January 08, 2024
at an age of 38 years

Dr. Parikshit Thakur was born in Murshidabad on February 28, 1986. He completed his schooling in Ramkrishna Mission Resident School and graduated from Ramkrishna Mission Vidyamadir, Belur. Then he went on to earn his Master Degree in 'International Relation' from Jadavpur University, Kolkata. Thereafter he completed his MPhil in 'Social Sciences' (2008 – 2010) and PhD in 'International Relations and Political Theory' (2012-2019) both also from Jadavpur University. Parikshit joined Raja N. L. Khan Women's college, Medinipur in 2010 and later Dwijendralal College, Krishnanagar in 2016.

He had a keen interest in literature, history, mythology at his young age. Even from that young age to the end, the characteristic excellence that had repeatedly impressed his near & dear ones were a strange combination of unfailing simplicity and inflexible courage. He was neither harsh, nor a snobbish. Never did he compromise with what was unjust or immoral. He had a very simple and inquisitive mind, with extraordinary integrity, perseverance and devotion. He used to seek answers to questions in every possible way in a most unassuming manner.

*With a career spanning over 14 years, Parikshit taught with unwavering enthusiasm, inspiring generations of students to reach their full potential. Parikshit's impact extended beyond the classroom. He mentored aspiring students & juniors, contributed to many books and actively participated in educational initiatives. His expertise in political science education earned him numerous accolades, including the prestigious presentation of papers in national & international journals. One of those was a chapter titled "Globalization and the Demise of Nation State" in the book Understanding Globalisation published by Routledge, London. He went to London with a prestigious Charles Wallace Fellowship. His devotion & honesty in profession and administrative works in Dwijendralal College made it palpable that the college was very close to his heart.*

Parikshit had been a vibrant spirit that always enchanted the colleagues positioned around him. He had an amazing ability to attract the attention of gatherings with his perfect mimicry performed all in a sudden. His infectious smile, kindness and generosity of spirit made him a beloved figure among students and colleagues alike.

Dr. Parikshit Thakur, a visionary educator and devoted mentor, left an indelible mark on the lives of countless students and colleagues. His untimely passing at the age of 38, has sent shockwaves through the educational fraternity. His legacy will continue to inspire and motivate future generations. His dedication, expertise and love for teaching and administrative works will never be fallen into oblivion. Parikshit's warmth, laughter and unwavering love will be deeply missed but forever cherished in our hearts. Commemoration of his lively life and personal anecdotes will always be a source of solace for those left behind.

Dr. Thakur will be survived by his wife, Smt. Kuhu Dey and his sole little daughter, Priyadarshini Thakur. May God give endurance to this bereaved family !

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPAL

It is a moment of delight to know that the third issue of Dwijendralal College News Bulletin is ready to be published. The News Bulletins keep record of major events, incidents, activities of the college, assembled together between the two cover pages. As the activities increase in number so the volume gets thickened in pages, reflecting the preparation, practice and priorities. The College News Bulletin Team has once again staged a wonderful effort and I hope this will continue. Feedbacks are coming from all concerns and they have started to make us believe that the journey of the college, now in a new, separate chapter, has finally gained both mobility and momentum.

Principal

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT CELL

24TH JANUARY, 2024: CELEBRATION OF NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY.

On 24th January 2024, National Girl Child Day was observed on the Dwijendralal College campus to raise awareness about the challenges faced by girl children in Indian society, and to promote their rights, especially in the areas of education, health, and nutrition. The Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of India, commemorates this day annually on 24th January. While no official theme was announced for 2024, the celebration revolved around the slogan: "Digital Generation, Our Generation, Our Time is Now - Our Rights, Our Future."

For the first time in the history of the college, the Department of Bengali, in collaboration with the Women Empowerment Cell of Dwijendralal College, hosted this important event. The program saw enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and staff from various departments. The esteemed Principal of the college, Dr. Banibrata Goswami, along with other faculty members, delivered brief but impactful speeches. They stressed the importance of girl education, health, and nutrition, and called for equal opportunities for girls in every sphere of life. The speakers emphasized creating an encouraging environment that values girls and fosters their growth in areas such as sports, arts, and social services, contributing to women's empowerment and overall upliftment.

Following the on-campus celebration, participants visited Akshay Vidyapeeth Ucha Balika Vidyalaya in Krishnanagar, where they interacted with the headmistress, teachers, and students. The day concluded on a warm and celebratory note, marking a memorable occasion dedicated to championing the rights and futures of girls in society.

7TH MARCH, 2024: INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY.

On 7th March 2024, the Women Empowerment Cell of Dwijendralal College organized a special event to celebrate International Women's Day. The theme for 2024, 'Inspire Inclusion', highlighted the importance of fostering understanding and valuing women's inclusion in all aspects of society. With the intention of spreading hope for a more inclusive world, attendees, including the Principal, faculty, students, and staff, wore green as a symbol of hope.

The event commenced with the inauguration of the Birangana Karate Club, aimed at empowering girls by teaching them self-defense skills. The day also marked the launch of several key initiatives, including the college's Psychological Counseling Cell, a new Women's Common Room, and a Doctor's Chamber. These were inaugurated by notable guests, including Dr. Natasha Dasgupta, Former Principal of Krishnagar Women's College, Mr. Asim Saha, President of the Governing Body, Dwijendralal College, and the distinguished couple, Dr. Jatan Roy Chowdhury and Dr. Sangeeta Roy Chowdhury.

In the opening session, Principal Dr. Banibrata Goswami warmly welcomed the guests with a brief address. Dr. Natasha Dasgupta, the guest of honor, delivered a powerful speech on the significance of feminism, while Dr. Jatan Roy Chowdhury and Dr. Sangeeta Roy Chowdhury focused on crucial women's health issues.

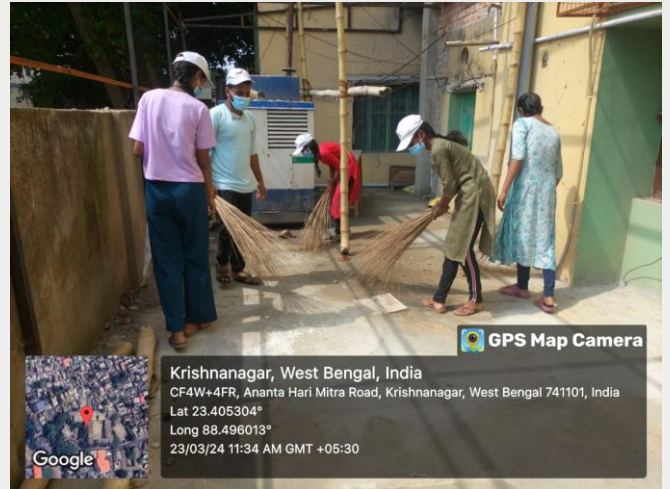

Dr. Marufa Khatun, convenor of the Women Empowerment Cell and faculty member of the Department of Philosophy, spoke about misogyny and the various waves of feminism. This was followed by a remarkable trio presentation by Prof. Ranu Biswas, Head of the Department of Bengali, Dr. Jolly Chatterjee, Secretary of the Teachers' Council, and Prof. Kamalika Basu, Head of the Department of Geography. Their presentation highlighted the extraordinary contributions of women to fields such as literature, science, and the arts, while also acknowledging the historical barriers women have faced. They called for collective recognition and inspiration from the women who have overcome these challenges and excelled.

The session concluded with engaging competitions, including debates, extempore speeches, and a drawing contest for students from MoU colleges. The entire day was a meaningful celebration of women's achievements and an opportunity to reflect on the ongoing journey towards equality and inclusion.
